Grishko Donates to Stavna Ballet

Grishko retailers Marti Morgan and Catherine Woodson have begun sponsorship of the new contemporary ballet company Stavna Ballet, based in Richmond, Virginia. Marti and Catherine own Pointe Dance Boutique in nearby Midlothian. "Stavna Ballet was founded in late 2010 and has already become a strong presence within the Richmond dance community," they say.

Marti and Catherine have donated Grishko slippers to the company and provided shoes, tights and costumes for Stavna's summer gala in August. They have pledged continuing sponsorship, and Grishko has contributed by donating pointe shoes for each of Stavna's female dancers.

"We have proudly carried Grishko slippers and pointe shoes since we opened in Jan. 2007 and look forward to our continued success for many more years!" say Marti and Catherine. Grishko celebrates their contribution to their dance community, and we are honored to participate in their sponsorship of Stavna Ballet.
